

Greg Davies

UNITY DEVELOPER

Profile

Motivated and forward-thinking Unity Developer with 4+ years of experience in software development. Superbly skilled at collaborating with a diverse range of people and can inspire and engage with any team to achieve results. Has the courage to take action on new opportunities and has strong commercial awareness to ensure that the risks are properly managed.

In previous roles reduced the delivery time and was able to coordinate 97% of product completion in line with the company roadmap. In the role of Product Owner, with mentorship from experienced project managers, they are now able to provide excellent business consultancy and develop software using acquired technical skills and knowledge. For example, they have used Unity to ship an iOS app, used Ionic, Vue and Node.js to create their portfolio and they have experience creating websites and landing pages commercially using bootstrap.
